SELANNE STEAK TAVERN

1464 S. Coast Highway
Laguna Beach, California

OVERVIEW

Selanne Steak Tavern is the place to enjoy memorable special occasions and private functions. Enjoy outstanding signature cuisine, hand-crafted beverages and an impeccable attention to detail in a comfortable, yet elegant, Laguna Beach setting.

Located in a converted 1930's beach cottage, Selanne Steak Tavern offers 5,100 square feet of convertible upstairs and downstairs spaces for groups and private dining: an elegant steakhouse dining room, a handsome comfortable tavern bar, an outdoor patio and a wine room. The restaurant is owned by hockey legend and Olympian Teemu Selanne, a 2007 Stanley Cup winner and NHL All-Star player for the Anaheim Ducks, and local Orange County businessman Kevin Pratt. Chef Vincent Terusa has skillfully created a menu that celebrates his favorite foods such as aged prime Wagyu beef, Pacific Sea scallops and Jidori chicken. And his delicious fare pairs perfectly with Selanne Steak Tavern's Wine Spectator award-winning wine list and program.

VERANDA – Capacity 40 Guests

A beautiful outdoor patio lit by dramatic all-white pierced Moroccan light fixtures that provide subtle, sculptural beauty during the day and a romantic dappled light in the evening. With heaters and a fireplace, this space has a wonderfully intimate look and feel.

WINE LIBRARY – Capacity 22 Guests

Large photographs of sun-splashed Southern California beaches and a whitewashed original brick fireplace lend an open, airy ambiance. This classic and elegant room is decorated with eclectic bottles and candles. Its candlelit fireplace emits a sultry glow throughout.
