Selanne Steak Tavern is an upscale restaurant located in a historic 1934 home on Pacific Coast Highway in Laguna Beach, California. The light and airy venue, which boasts distressed oak floors, etched glass windows, an original brick fireplace and distinctive vintage photography, exudes casual California elegance. The 5,100-square-foot restaurant, co-owned by hockey legend Teemu Selanne and Kevin Pratt, can accommodate up to 134 guests for private events. They can dine on modern American fare from acclaimed executive chef Joshua Severson, whose menu focuses on succulent steaks and chops, and sustainably raised fish, game and poultry. Toast the experience with an artisan cocktail or glass of wine from Selanne's extensive collection. selannesteaktavern.com
